U.S. Stocks Move Sharply Lower On Hotter-Than-Expected Inflation Data

NEWS / FUNDAMENTALS
(Reuters)

Stocks moved sharply lower during trading on Tuesday, with the major averages all showing significant moves to the downside after ending Monday's trading narrowly mixed. The Dow pulled back well off yesterday's record closing highs. CPI increased by slightly more in the month of January.

Yesterday's Technical Review using WB's Emini Clock and Wyckoff's Tape Reading Principles

I trust the trades you made today covered your flower bill. I talked about we had a potential selling climax and was in progress in finding the seal of the automatic rally.

In the Strategy on page 3 I said: "Strategy: Yesterdays potential selling climax and automatic rally shows strength at the close. Price regained most of the previous rally high. Bulls will need to defend three day pivot of 91 down to the 81. Get long on the secondary test / AM LOW seal. Exit half on Selling Level Two 5017. Exit rest on close if holds 32 handle."

Well I was close the low of day was 10 point lower at 4972.75 handle. Perhaps were the AM LOW sealed at 4980.50 you just took 50 (fifty) cents heat. The S2L day has a potential for a "how deep is your three?" That's refering to the turn 3. Since we do not have a MID AM turn we have the potential for price to drift down to the PEON close and lower.

So straight up 12:00 pm price checked the previous day's close and found a bid. Next we are looking for the lunch high. Notice it's sealed around 1:20 pm just about center time. A drift down to the mid pm low should have been what you needed to get on board. For the bull ride of the day. Notice the mid pm low just wet beaked the AM LOW.

That's telling you we've had 3 hours of accumulation to start moving (marking) price up. Notice just after the mid pm low seal price moves up to the lunch high and gives back just a little. At 3:00 pm price starts to move up on increased volume.

Notice from 3:35 pm the effort and result are in agreement. Price and volume move up in proportion to each. And where is the high of day?

We are wrapping up this year and grinding into the next. If Momma gets thrown from the train

1. Average an aggressive market can move about 150 points in one day.
2. If Algo's decide to go all out REO and "Take It All Away" you could see a 500, 800 to God help us 1,300 point move in a day, across days or a week. Perhaps a month if there is no bid in sight.
3. That is if this market starts to take notice on the news and current events.

I'm just a regular guy; Not Silver spoon family or WALL Street / Chicago network or Financial Fast Track educational express super star golden boy, I have an Intimate knowledge of the insider mindset / how the insiders on Wall Street think act and position their trades.

I wrote my own charting program. I don't use indicators. Just judgment: interaction of Price, Volume and Time. I focus on the Intraday waves of the market and how they are timed to the "hidden clock" of the market. I look at the composite man the "insider" in terms of the market. Others look at bulls and bears (my strongest point)

I SEE THE MARKET IN TERMS OF THE COMPOSITE MAN / INSIDER – Most traders look at the market in terms of bulls and bears. This creates a dichotomy. A duality of the mind. Wyckoff looked at the market in terms of Composite Man / "insiders".

Actionable Trade Ideas

Today's Stop: Ideal 20% ATR of 42; 6 to 8 points or 1% to 2% of trading account value.

Tone / Sentiment : Comosite Man let those who wanted to sell sell. Then at the 2:00 pm mark start to marketing up campaign. Straight up to print a new high of day on the closing print.

Overnight Read: There is a slew of economic announcements on Thursday. Earnings also might get attention. Early trends from the U.S. Futures Index suggest that Wall Street might open higher. Asian shares finished mostly up, while European shares are trending up. As of 7.40 am ET, the Dow futures were up 69.00 points, the S&P 500 futures were adding 9.00 points and the Nasdaq 100 futures were progressing 34.00 points.

Mathematical / Technical Read: Today's pivot is 38 handles above yesterday. Yesterday inside day. Need to take out 5021 then 5040 for bull run. Bears will need to 4970 down to 4936 from bear run. Two days left to recover.

Strategy: Yesterday sealed the secondary test at the AM LOW down to 12:00 pm. Mid pm low lifts offers and Composite Man started to mark price back up. Price is trading above Weekly, 3-Day, and Daily Pivot. If price dips down to 12 to 03 consider a long. Exit half at the 34. Exit remaining half at mid pm high, remaining at close.

Last Night: Took all the fun away from CASH and took price back up to where "momma" got thrown off the plane right before the numbers.

Edge: Globex mostly long. May see some retracement of Globex during AM LOW. (same today)

Could see some give back to weekly, 3-day and daily pivot. and then a move to regain some of globex gain.

7/8/9 AM: Holding in a tight range around the 5025 waiting on the numbers.

Today: Looking to hold the gain with some additional gains to the up side.

Bears Want: 09, 95, 87

Globex: 18 handle trading range on 118 volume.

Cycle Bias: Favored to the bull.

Tone: VIX trading at 13.36

Shape of the day: If all the weak hands are out, a strong move to the upside. Could see a tighter range day.

Honing: Spill up, AM LOW, MID AM HIGH, lunch low, mid pm high, LAST HOUR LOW

Bill Fish (4H/4D) Got long at the MID AM LOW. LONG

Tuna (30m 1+D) Got long at the mid pm low. LONG
